HELLO FROM JIM CARROLL, FOUNDER, MASON JAZZ

Dear Friends,

A sincere welcome to George Mason University as together we celebrate the 20th Annual smokin' Jazz 4 Justice™! Thanks, and thanks to our partners, Legal Services of Northern Virginia. Your service keeps us inspired.

I believe it is more important than ever that we learn as much as possible about America's great contribution to the arts: JAZZ! Please take a moment to read House Resolution 57 designating Jazz as a "rare and valuable national treasure." As an educator, I feel a strong sense of purpose to pass on to my students their rightful cultural inheritance. Its value is beyond priceless. As a human being I feel a deep, deep sense of gratitude to those who came before and sacrificed so much so that we may have such a rich and abundant heritage.

Excerpt from friend Wynton Marsalis, The Road Ahead:

"Jazz People come from all walks of life. The music is easily played in every environment from the subway to the park to a corner dive [and to our own Center for the Arts]. It comes from salt of the earth people who created it to be down home and hospitable, humble, and rough and tumble. Jazz Music was built in the cacophonous turbulence of 1890's New Orleans with the hardy constitution to lift us beyond troubled times. It is filled with a transformative positivity, if only because [of] the thought that a whole band could play all night without music, and each member could improvise new melodies on the harmonies of songs while organizing themselves as they made it up together.

If you consider the opposition to what they were playing at the time (it was called the devil's music, nonsense, ignorant, racket... and treated to all levels of racial insult from the sophomoric to the sophisticated), these musicians must have possessed an irrepressible spirit that inspired them and still inhabits this music, and can lift us as we grapple with our everyday struggles." To think our students can participate in the community at this level and truly understand Wynton's words, is indeed a gift.

About Duke Ellington, what more can be said? Beyond Category! For reading I suggest Music is my Mistress, and she plays second fiddle to no one or The Duke Ellington Reader. Well, it has been said writing about music is like dancing about architecture. I would go right to the music. So, I suggest Ellington, Uptown or Ellington at Newport. For many musicians, Ellington, like history itself, is a bug that bites late. Billy Strayhorn and Duke Ellington wrote over 2,000 compositions. So much beautiful music to receive!

About Billy Strayhorn, the unsung hero, but a true hero nonetheless. He lived his life with these four guiding principles: "Freedom from Hate, Freedom from Pride, Freedom from Self-Pity, Freedom from the fear of doing something that might help someone more than it might help himself."

~ Jim Carroll, 2021

LSNV's mission could not be accomplished without the generous support of the Northern Virginia community. We thank you for your support and invite you to learn more about how we benefit the community at lsnv.org.

ABOUT JAZZ 4 JUSTICE™

In 2000, Fairfax attorney Ed Weiner attended a student jazz recital. He was impressed by the music but distressed by the small audience. As the President of the Fairfax Law Foundation, he saw an opportunity for a new partnership: universities would provide the musical talent and the local legal community would provide the audience and sponsors.

Today, Jazz 4 Justice™ concerts are held throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia. Thus far, it has raised over $500,000 for music scholarships and an array of educational and charitable legal services benefiting Virginia's local communities, and has received awards from the American Bar Association and the Virginia State Bar. Jazz 4 Justice™ is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization. Visit us at jazz4justice.com.

We are supported in part by a grant from the Virginia Law Foundation (VLF), whose mission is to promote, through philanthropy, the Rule of Law, access to justice, and law-related education.

H.CON.RES 57

Passed by the 100th Congress of the United States of America Introduced by the Honorable John Conyers Jr.

Whereas, jazz has achieved preeminence throughout the world as an indigenous American music and art form, bringing to this country and the world a uniquely American musical synthesis and culture through the African-American experience and

1. makes evident to the world an outstanding artistic model of individual expression and democratic cooperation within the creative process, thus fulfilling the highest ideals and aspirations of our republic,
2. is a unifying force, bridging cultural, religious, ethnic and age differences in our diverse society,
3. is a true music of the people, finding its inspiration in the cultures and most personal experiences of the diverse peoples that constitute our Nation,
4. has evolved into a multifaceted art form which continues to birth and nurture new stylistic idioms and cultural fusions,
5. has had an historic, pervasive and continuing influence on other genres of music both here and abroad, and
6. has become a true international language adopted by musicians around the world as a music best able to express contemporary realities from a personal perspective;

Whereas, this great American musical art form has not yet been properly recognized nor accorded the institutional status commensurate with its value and importance;

Whereas, it is important for the youth of America to recognize and understand jazz as a significant part of their cultural and intellectual heritage;

Whereas, in as much as there exists no effective national infrastructure to support and preserve jazz;

Whereas, documentation and archival support required by such a great art form has yet to be systematically applied to the jazz field; and

Whereas, it is now in the best interest of the national welfare and all of our citizens to preserve and celebrate this unique art form;

Now, therefore be it Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), that it is the sense of the Congress that jazz is hereby designated as a rare and valuable national American treasure to which we should devote our attention, support and resources to make certain it is preserved, understood and promulgated.

Passed by the House of Representatives September 23, 1987

Passed by the Senate December 4, 1987

OPENING ADDRESS TO THE 1964 BERLIN JAZZ FESTIVAL

“God has wrought many things out of oppression. He has endowed his creatures with the capacity to create and from this capacity has flowed the sweet songs of sorrow and joy that have allowed man to cope with his environment and many different situations.

Jazz speaks for life. The Blues tell the story of life’s difficulties, and if you think for a moment, you will realize that they take the hardest realities of life and put them into music, only to come out with some new hope or sense of triumph.

This is triumphant music.

Modern jazz has continued in this tradition, singing the songs of a more complicated urban existence. When life itself offers no order and meaning, the musician creates an order and meaning from the sounds of the earth which flow through his instrument.

It is no wonder that so much of the search for identity among American Negroes was championed by Jazz musicians. Long before the modern essayists and scholars wrote of racial identity as a problem for a multiracial world, musicians were returning to their roots to affirm that which was stirring within their souls.

Much of the power of our Freedom Movement in the United States has come from this music. It has strengthened us with its sweet rhythms when courage began to fail. It has calmed us with its rich harmonies when spirits were down.

And now, Jazz is exported to the world. For in the particular struggle of the Negro in America there is something akin to the universal struggle of modern man. Everybody has the Blues. Everybody longs for meaning. Everybody needs to love and be loved. Everybody needs to clap hands and be happy. Everybody longs for faith.

In music, especially this broad category called Jazz, there is a stepping stone towards all of these.”
