The 3rd Annual Jazz4Justice at Mr. Brown's Park will take place on Monday, September 4th, the Labor Day Holiday, for a full afternoon of live music and activism to help close the Justice Gap.

Presented by Jazz4Justice, Jazz4Justice at Mr. Brown's Park will bring out hundreds of Falls Church residents to enjoy back-to-back sets of stellar live music culminating in a community jazz jam. The event is free and open to the public and will benefit Legal Aid Justice Center in order to highlight their economic justice initiative.

About Jazz4Justice and the Justice Gap:

According to the 2022 Justice Gap Report, low-income Americans did not receive any or enough legal help for 92% of their civil legal problems. 74% of low income households faced at least one civil legal problem in the past year alone. This discrepancy between legal representation for civil cases and the need for legal services for low-income individuals is known as the "Justice Gap". (Source: 2022 Justice Gap Report, Legal Services Corporation) Jazz4Justice helps close the Justice Gap by creating partnerships for concerts and festivals in order to raise funds to support Legal Services and Jazz Scholarships.

Depending on the level, partnering sponsor benefits include logo on the poster, signage on the day of the event, mention from the stage, full 3-week promotional campaign leading up to the event, mention in the press release, complimentary Jazz4Justice merchandise, and the opportunity to display/distribute promotional materials at the event. Jazz4Justice events take place year round across multiple cities in Virginia and DC. Depending on the level, the sponsorship may also include mention in programs across the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Jazz4Justice raises public awareness and funds for Legal Aid and music scholarships. We do this by forming collaborative partnerships with the legal community, the business community, the music community, and Universities.
